

ROOFTRAIN

ESTIMATING COURSE

Venue: Brooklands Mill Nadderwater Exeter EX4 2JG

The 2 day course, originally designed to give merchants an understanding of producing quantity lists and estimating from customers' plans, aims to break down the mystique of architects' drawings and would benefit roofing/building contractors looking to improve on their knowledge and confidence in an important part of their business.

COURSE PROGRAMME

Registration and introductions
Welfare

Terminology
Roof Design
How to use a scale rule
Measuring simple shapes

Measuring complex shapes
How to draw a sketch for reference
How to measure the length of a valley/hip
How to measure in an orderly manner

Making a quantity list

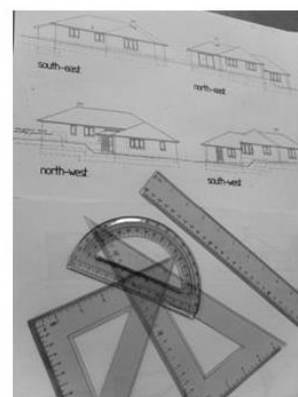

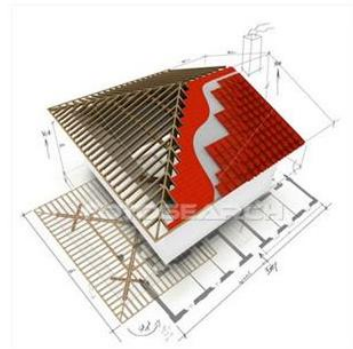

Materials list for ordering/pricing
Identifying type & size of slate/tile to be used
Accessories – ridge, felt support trays, hips, eaves vents

Allowing percentage for breakages
Allowing percentage for wastage

Adding slate & half
Adding fittings/accessories

Overheads & Labour Rates

Question and Answer session and summary

01392 254935 / 07970 792551
info@rooftrain.co.uk